THE REFLECTOR,
Official Paper of the City.

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

The cold wave signal is up.
The bridge across the Smoky Hill south of town is being repaired.

Fairview.
Rev. Killinger, the new pastor of the Lutheran church, will commence his pastorate next Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Hazlett came into the city Tuesday morning, from Topeka, where she now resides.

Fairview.
Dr. Raub left for Hays City Monday, where he will spend a week or two at "tooth carpentering."

Dr. C. H. Oakwood, of the Medical Infirmary, took a trip to Junction Tuesday to visit a patient.

A. J. Stitts says he objects to being called "Stitts." Anyone with half an eye can see the name don't apply.

Charley Estes is still confined to his room. We are pleased to note the fact that he is gradually growing better.

Fairview.
G. B. Teedricks, the genial traveling passenger agent of the Ft. Wayne and Pittsburg, was in town Tuesday last.

A number of our society young gentlemen are agitating the idea of giving a grand Thanksgiving ball at the Henry House.

Rev. W. A. Welsch, D. D., of the Baptist church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon on the 25th, in the Lutheran church.

Fairview.
Holiday goods are commencing to arrive. Those who bet the wrong way on election will buy bye and bye s'mother year.

Theatrical attractions are still a matter of dim uncertainty at the Bone-brake Opera House. Nothing has as yet been booked.

Born—In West Abilene, Nov. 9th, 1886, to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Russell, a son—name—Robert Miller Russell.
We offer congratulations.

The Christmas cards now being displayed at our leading establishments excel in elegance and uniqueness of design those of any past year.

Rev. Geo. Merriam, wife and child, of Solomon City, have returned from a very pleasant visit in Maine, much improved in health and spirits.

The social given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, last evening, at the residence of Mrs. V. B. Cosad, was a pleasant affair, and largely attended.

Fairview.
Fred. Lindow put up the elegant electric light fixture in Croll and Gul-lick's drug store. Fred is an artist, as any one can see by looking at his work.

John M. Gleissner started Tuesday morning on a few days business trip to Wichita. During his absence, Will Zahner has charge of his drug establishment.

The merchants tell us that trade is good, and daily increasing. It must be so, considering the unmerciful onslaught they are making on our advertising columns.

Fairview.
The new assistant night watchman was hired for the purpose of protecting the property of our citizens. He seems to be having a pretty hard time of it to protect his own person and property.

Rev. Thos. H. Vail, the venerable Bishop of the Diocese of Kansas, will hold communion and confirmation services in St. John's Episcopal church this city, next Sunday at the usual time, morning and evening.

Mrs. H. W. Mills and Mrs. H. Meriam, sisters of S. J. Wright, our Buckeye avenue shoe merchant, returned to their respective homes in Kansas City on Saturday last, after a pleasant visit of three or four days.

Several local winners of election bets are looking for the stake holders. The next time they bet, the stake holders will be so in all senses of the word; they'll be anchored securely to stakes until the bets are settled.

Ed. Sutter had an elegant specimen of a pelican in the show window of J.
S. Kelley the fore part of the week.
The bird was perfectly mounted, and gave one an idea of what a success Ed. is in the taxidermic line.

In this week's issue will be noticed the advertisement of our live contracting, building and real estate firm, A. L.
Gosauque & Co. We recommend them to the public as fully deserving their patronage. They are wide awake, up-with-the-times gentlemen, and fully able to do everything they advertise.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will give an oyster supper to-morrow evening in the store room formerly occupied by Haas & Sons on Second street.

The parties who committed the late "burglaries" are still undiscovered, notwithstanding the fact that our efficient police force has been increased in number.

R. K. Jeffries, formerly proprietor of the Montezuma Hotel in Solomon City, but now engaged in the hotel business at Ellsworth, was in town Tuesday.
"Bob" has many friends here, and they were all pleased to meet him.

Fairview.
B. L. Strother left Sunday noon for Siloam Springs and Clayton, Ill., where he will remain for a few weeks visiting old friends, and taking a much needed rest from his journalistic duties. B. L. has been in poor health for some time past, and his recreation was rendered imperative on that account.

The Henry House is headquarters for the dog men. If you want to hear more dog talk than ever before in your life, just drop into the office some evening and listen to the wonderful tails told. Several of the way up animals have pedigrees which reach back to the days of Noah and his justly famous and much advertised menagerie.

F. Edgar Etter, who has been doing the handsome behind the counter at the Lindell, Kansas City, is at present in town and has located himself temporarily west of the creek. He is taking a short rest, owing to the financial embarrassment of the above named hostelry.

W. H. Eicholtz, Harrison Bonebrake, W. B. Giles and C. Stevens left Tuesday for the Cheyenne bottoms on a duck hunting expedition of a few days duration. It is understood that several hundred cards labeled "I am somewhat of a liar myself," are being printed and will be sprung upon them when they return and give an account of their adventures.

"Milt" Brenizer and wife, nee Jessie Phillips Walker, of Clarion, Pa., arrived in the city on Saturday last, and are now busily engaged receiving congratulations. Milt is one of our young and most enterprising business men, and has a host of friends who will wish himself and bride an endless amount of happiness and prosperity.

John F. Berry left last Monday noon for Concordia, where he will in the future engage in the clothing and gents furnishing goods business. Mr. Berry is a young man of marked business capacity and a natural born rustler, as are all who answer to that name. In his new departure we wish him no end of success, and feel sure that he'll win it.

Father Hurley, of Junction City, has received a letter from Bishop Fink, saying that if Abilene does not make good the Mother's School proposition, after a reasonable length of time, that the offer will then be made to Junction City. Our citizens should see to it that the scheme for establishing the school here does not fall through. Let every one put his shoulder to the wheel, and the school will soon be an assured fact.

One of our stock men, who has hitherto been distinguished for a lack of humor, is now immediately under his nasal appendage, is at present fingering something that will in all probability develop into a moustache. All it needs is time and attention. Keep it up, Joe! There must be a commencement to everything. Get it under headway before the frosts set in, or it is surely doomed.

Ed. Thisler is absent minded. He walked off with another man's hat the other day, which was several sizes too small for him, and never discovered the fact until the owner of the hat, almost entirely concealed in the depths of Ed's capeau, ran him down. Ed swears that his hat was worth two of Ed's. We are inclined to believe Ed, for who could look in his guileless countenance, and believe that he ever told what he couldn't swear to?

Fairview.
Dr. A. H. Phelps is busily engaged in fitting up his Turkish bath rooms in the Post-Office block. When completed, which will be about the middle of December, it will be as neat and handsome an establishment of the kind as can be found in "these yere parts," if not the only one. The Doctor is already assured enough patronage to make his venture a permanent success. The rooms will be opened to the public, and the baths ready for use, about the middle of December.

Abilene is to have an attraction shortly which it is safe to say has never before been witnessed by even the oldest and most bald-headed inhabitant.
It is no less than a female base ball club. The organization will play at the fair grounds on the afternoon of the 22nd inst., a picked nine to be pitted against them, of which it is understood Bradley and Haddock will cover the points. No umpire has yet been decided upon, but we would suggest that the P. J. be appointed to fill the bill. Brad. might then be able to turn the tables, and give him a few pointers on "late local" and "fun."

The Henry House, already an excellent hostelry, the best on the road between Topeka and Denver, is still making more improvements. Mr. C. D.
Brewer, who now has the hotel in charge, is the right man in the right place, and under his supervision, the hotel will be more popular than ever with both the traveling public and "regulars" alike. The latest innovation is the placing of four male colored waiters in the dining room. They arrived on Monday from the Southern hotel, St. Louis, and are the creme de la creme of that very artistic profession.
Many other improvements will be inaugurated in the near future, and it is safe to say the public will appreciate them, and reciprocate by a larger patronage than ever. Col. Brady is on hand, and "rustles" as much as possible when he has time to spare from his other business enterprises, while W. C. Walker, the night clerk, and Jake Dovel, the night clerk, keep themselves busy attending to the wants of the guests.

A turkey shoot, for the benefit of the fire department, will be held at the fair grounds on Thanksgiving day.

J. M. Wallace, connected with J. C.
City Monday noon on a business trip.

Wahl & Son suffered a loss of about $500 by the burning of their slaughter house and contents on Tuesday morning last.

The street sprinkler is a good thing, and a liberal subscription should be made towards defraying the running expenses.

Hansbrough will remove his photograph gallery shortly to some fine new quarters which have been fitted up for him in the P. O. block.

The third annual convention of the Dickinson county Sunday School Association commenced its labors yesterday in the Baptist church. Through lack of space, we are unable to make a report of the doings this week, but will give it to our readers in next week's issue.

George Huffman says its a boy.
Time of arrival, Wednesday morning.
Huff, seems not at all cowed at the prospect, but considers it—or rather him—a bully good thing. He intends to stock up with an extra supply of beef for the coming winter, in order to buy it sheep, beef-ore the price goes up. He also says he intends to be as gentle as a lamb with his kid, and won't lamb it once, even if he cries.
We were just hoggish enough to take cigars on the young gentleman, for which we return thanks. Steer him through life on the right trail, Huff, never allow him to take a short or a long horn, and our word for it, you'll have a son who'll do you proud.

Our leading drug establishment, that of Barnes and Northcraft, will give a Christmas drawing, in which forty elegant prizes will be given away. The articles to be raffled for can now be seen at the store, and include an elegant music box, valued at $65.00, and playing ten popular airs; six pair of bronze vases, ranging in price from $6.00 to $35.00; ten dressing cases, worth from $6.00 to $30.00; jewel cases; odor cases; gents dressing cases; shaving sets, etc. Four hundred tickets will be sold at $1.00 each. Call at the store and look over the prizes on exhibition, and we'll guarantee you'll put your name down for one or more numbers.

District court closed its labors on Saturday last, and "fear and trembling" will be given a rest until the February term. Frank Givens, who was convicted of selling beer on one out of four counts, was sentenced to sixty days imprisonment in the county jail, and to pay a fine of $200.00. Orr Decker and James Bottomly, convicted for endeavoring to obtain goods under false pretenses, each received a sentence of one year in the pen. Gus Hansbrough, who was convicted for the illegal sale of liquor, failed on a motion for a new trial. Sentence was deferred upon him however, until the February term of court, it being feared that it would have a fatal effect upon his wife, who is at present seriously ill.

Commencing this evening, and continuing three nights, the war drama of the "Blue and Grey" will be given at the Bonebrake Opera House. The entertainment will be produced by home talent, led by the veteran actor, Major James T. Burton, who has for many years trod the boards, in a manner which has given him a wide and well deserved reputation. The Major informs us that all details are perfect, and that the production will be one that will reflect much credit upon those taking part. We expect to see a crowded house at the initial performance this evening, and have no doubt but what the entire affair will be a grand success. Remember that it is for the benefit of the Army Fund of the "home guards," and let all be present who can. The cast of characters is as follows:
Detrick Vonderspeck... Jas. T. Burton
Colonel St. Leon... H. L. Humphrey
Harry Pearson... C. S. Crawford
Frank Duncan... Henry Litts John Harker... C. W. Mansfield
